This ebook is for the exclusive use of Members of www.justaboutperfect.org and their visitors.

It is not for sale. It tells a story about one way a person can earn a six-figure income while only working about two hours a week. Although anyone can follow the suggestions offered and earn a substantial income, it does not imply that everyone will be able to do it.

Members can download the ebook to their personal computer and print copies. They can share it with people who are interested in enrolling in www.justaboutperfect.org providing that they do not modify it in any way and do not make any representations about the earning potential of www.justaboutperfect.org not based on their personal experience.

Was this just a dream?

There I was, alone with him.

Who was he? And what brought us together in these circumstances?

“Why are we here?”, I asked.

“Perhaps a better question would be ‘How can this experience change your life in a good way?’”

“Who are you?”

“Let’s just say that you were ready and I appeared on schedule.”

“Ready for what?”

“To embrace life in a new and wonderful way.”

“And what would that be?”

“You tell me. What would make your life ‘WONDERFUL’ right now?”

“A million dollars would be a start.”

“And then what?”

“Freedom to do whatever I want to do.”

“Do you know what you want to do?”

“I guess not. What’s the use? I can’t do it anyway.”

“So what has to come first? Knowing what you want or knowing how to get it?”

“I’m not sure.”

“If I show you how to get what you want, will you take the responsibility to decide what you do want?”

“Of course! Who wouldn’t?”

“You’d be surprised. But if you’re serious and will take a few simple action steps, I’ll make it happen for you. Are you ready?”

“You bet!”

“Congratulations. Ya’ know, most people aren’t even curious enough to see what’s possible.

“But I see that you are – so shall we get started?”

“So what’s next?”

“You said you are ready. Does that mean that there are some things you would like to change about your life?”

“For starters, more money would help.”

“O.K. How much do you want?”

“I’m getting by now. How about doubling my income?”

“And what would that be?”

“I think $90,000 would be great.”

“What if I said you could be earning $100,000 to $150,000? Would that do the job?”

“That would be even better. But what do I have to do to get it? I can’t see my job paying me that.”

“I’m sure you’re right. So how much time would you be willing to work for the six-figure income?”

“I don’t want to work any more than I am right now. I’ve got so much other stuff that I need to do besides my job.”

“If I told you that you could earn the six-figure income in just two-hours a week, what would you think?”

“I’d think you’re crazy – or else you have some scam.”

“Most people would agree with you – but they’d be wrong.”

“How so?”

“Most people think like the majority and so they get what most people get – an average life. Is that what you want to settle for?”

“No! But I’m not willing to take a wild flyer on some crazy scheme.”

“I’m glad to hear that. I’m not looking for people who will fall for crazy scams or schemes.

“I expect to prove everything I say to your total satisfaction.

“I am looking for people who believe there is a better way to live life and want that better life for everyone else.”

“About now I brace myself for the sales pitch. What are you going to sell me?”

“YOU! I want to sell you on YOU!”

“And what is this going to cost me?”

“It might cost you $25.00. But the big cost to you will be to open your mind to some new ideas.”

“And what are they?”

“I’ll start with the three big ones:

“We live in an abundant Universe where there is more than enough of everything for everyone.

“Everyone that wants to enjoy the abundance must learn the Law of Circulation and take part in it.”

“I’ve never heard of that.”

“The whole Universe depends on perfect circulation for its very existence and it applies to all of us as well. I’ve even written a book about it explaining how it works along with the law of attraction to produce everything there is.”

“The third big idea is that we must treat every other living person with respect and bring them into the abundance of the Universe.”

“I know of lots of people that are stinkin’ rich that don’t give a damn for anyone else. What’s respect got to do with it?”

“It’s true that some people make money by taking advantage of others, but I don’t think they’re truly abundant. And besides, the method I’m suggesting requires that you care about other people. Do you have a problem with that?”

“I guess not.

“It sounds great in theory, but I’m not sure it’s practical.”

“If I can show you that it’s practical, will you participate?”

“Sure! But I don’t convince easily and I’m really suspicious when someone promises something for nothing.”

“What did I promise you?”

“A six-figure income.”

“For nothing?”

“You said a two-hour work week – and that’s pretty close to nothing.”

“There is one more thing I’ll ask of you.”

“Oh, here it comes!”

“If you did earn a six-figure income in two hours a week, what would you do with the other 38 hours you are now working – just to make a living?”

“I guess I’d sleep late, play golf and maybe travel.”

“That’s what most people say, and it does sound like fun for a while. But unless you come up with something more meaningful, you’ll soon be disillusioned and scramble for something more – like more money.

“Before I show you how to earn a six-figure income in two hours a week, I have a gift for you.

“I developed a website – www.justaboutperfect.org -- that I want to introduce you to.

“Over the years I discovered that when you asked most people what would make their life ‘Just About Perfect’, they couldn’t come up with a clear answer. I created a process which I called “your future story” that encourages people to write a story about their life just the way they want it to be. I was amazed that very few could do it. So I created a software program to help them along.

“To use the software, you just answer a series of simple questions about how you want your life to be. Then the software program writes your story.

“And how much does that cost me?”

“It’s free. It’s my gift to you. The cost will be for you to spend about a half hour answering the questions.”

“How do I get it?”

“You just ask! Then you download it from my website.”

“What if I do your software thing and I still don’t know what I want?”

“You will never know what you want if you depend on your mind to tell you. You’ll know what you want when you feel it in your heart.

“When you read the story my software program writes, either you will think ‘that’s nice’ or you will feel a ‘rush’ of excitement, joy and bliss. Thinking is the booby prize. What you feel tells your truth.*”

“If you don’t get a strong positive feeling from reading your story, you need to fix the story by answering the questions again. Chances are, you answered the questions the way you ‘thought’ you were supposed to answer instead of the way you really felt.*”

“When the story ‘feels’ good, you know it’s telling your truth – what you really want.”

“And that’s going to do it?”

“For many people it does. But most people need something else.”

“What’s that?”

“Connection and ongoing support.”

“How do I get that?”

“Connecting is part of the Law of Circulation. We cannot survive without it. Our world is designed so that we can connect with other people and provide mutual support. How long could you survive without all the people that are part of your world?”

“Probably not for long. But what’s that got to do with my six-figure income and two hour work week?”

“You survive now by performing a service that someone else is willing to pay you for. Typically we work around forty hours a week and take home a few hundred dollars which we spend on our survival and, if we’re lucky, some enjoyment.

“Some people work about the same number of hours but they take home many thousands each week. It all depends on what others are willing to pay for your services.

“Writers earn millions for a book when millions of people buy it from Amazon.com or Barnes & Noble for $16.95. Jeff Bezos, who started

Amazon.com, makes billions because they sell many millions of books – not to mention everything else they sell.”

“Well, unfortunately, I’m not a famous writer and I don’t have any plans to start the next Amazon.com. So how do I get my six-figures in two hours a week?”

“Don’t sell yourself short. You might be surprised some day that you could be an author or start a business that would overtake Amazon.

“But I’m suggesting that you start out modestly.”

“How?”

“Start by going to my website, www.justaboutperfect.org, and downloading my free software.

“While you’re there, check out the other support programs.”

“What are they?”

“Teleclasses. Individual Coaching. Connecting. Earning.

“The teleclasses are hosted by coaches with specialties like ‘finance and abundance’, ‘health’, ‘relationships’, business and methodologies that will make you a top performer in whatever area you wish.

“Our ‘Coaching Gym’ affords you individual sessions with coaches on the specific subjects you want to pursue.

“Our ‘Affiliate Program’ starts you on the path to earn that six-figure income.”

“And what’s it going to cost me for all that?”

“Twenty-five dollars a month.”

“And how does that help me get a six-figure income?”

“You already have the potential to earn the six-figure income. The only things standing in the way are your blocks. We have teleclasses that teach you to identify and remove those blocks. You’ll learn techniques like EFT, Release and Visualizing that can eliminate them for good. The ‘Coaching Gym’ will help you with your individual challenges.

“But the chances are, you’ll need a vehicle to earn your six-figures in two hours.

“Our ‘Mentor Program’ is the key to six-figures in two hours.”

“How does that work?”

“The first step is to make ‘JustAboutPerfect’ self-funding. You earn the twenty-five dollar monthly membership by introducing ‘JustAboutPerfect’ to two other people.

“You may already know several people who would appreciate our program and want to be part of it.

“If you’re hesitant to share this opportunity with people you know because you think it would be exploitive or embarrassing, we’ll show you how to meet people who will be interested in our program but are not yet members and as an Affiliate, you can enroll them.

“Once you produce results yourself, the people you know will be asking you if they can join too.

“For each member you introduce, you receive a 50% commission ($12.50) each month. This is continuing income as long as the member remains active.”

“I would have to enroll a ton of members at that rate to earn a six-figure income.”

“You’re right. And I’d be surprised if you even enrolled a half a dozen.”

“So where does the ‘magic’ come in?”

“The ‘magic’ is in the ‘Law of Circulation’ and the mathematics of multiplication.

“In addition to the 50% commission we pay to Affiliates, we commit an additional 30% of the membership fee for members of our Mentor Matrix. This is the part that can add $13,117.50 to your monthly income and produce your six-figure income.”

“Just exactly what do I have to do to earn this?”

“Become an Affiliate. Enroll two or three members as Affiliates and help at least two of your Affiliates do the same.”

“That seems too easy for thirteen grand a month.”

“It’s easier than a lot of ways people earn a six-figure income. The secret is in the power of multiplication. It works when the multiplication continues – and we have discovered a way to make it continue.”

“Is this like some kind of chain letter?”

“It works on the same principal but there is one significant difference.”

What’s that?”

“Every member receives valuable benefits and every Affiliate makes a contribution – a small one.”

“In conventional selling, a person earns a commission for every individual sale they make. In a conventional marketing program, many other people are compensated for their services. That could include advertising copywriters and artists, performers in commercials, sales managers and trainers in addition to the people actually making the sale.

“In our program, every Affiliate starts by enrolling two or three members. Then, to be part of the Mentor Matrix, you assist at least two of your Affiliates to do the same.

“This completes the cycle of responsibility that guarantees the growth of the program. The Affiliates you help don’t become part of the Matrix until they have assisted two or three others. When they have, they will become part of your team and contribute to your income.

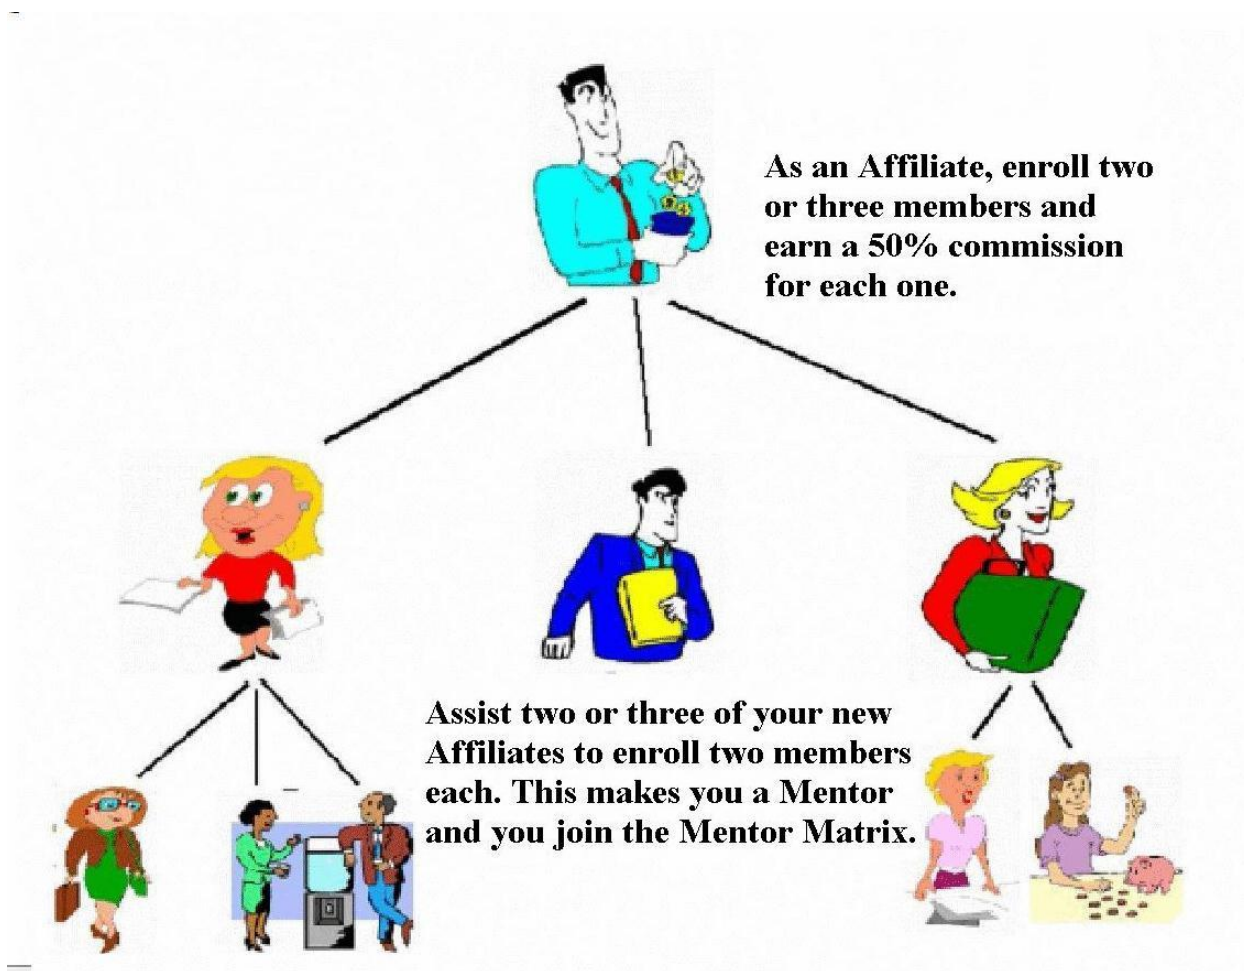

“In the mean time, other qualified Affiliates may become Mentors and be placed on your team ahead of those you introduced. In this manner, we are all supporting each other.

“How do I get paid for the people on my team?”

“In addition to the 50% commission you receive monthly for all the members you personally enroll, you receive a 4% bonus for each person in your Mentor Matrix for six generations. For the seventh generation, you receive a 6% bonus. Each generation has three other Mentors under their assigned Mentor.”

“I’m a little confused. Can you draw it out so I can understand how it works?”

“I’ll be happy to. Here’s how it looks.”

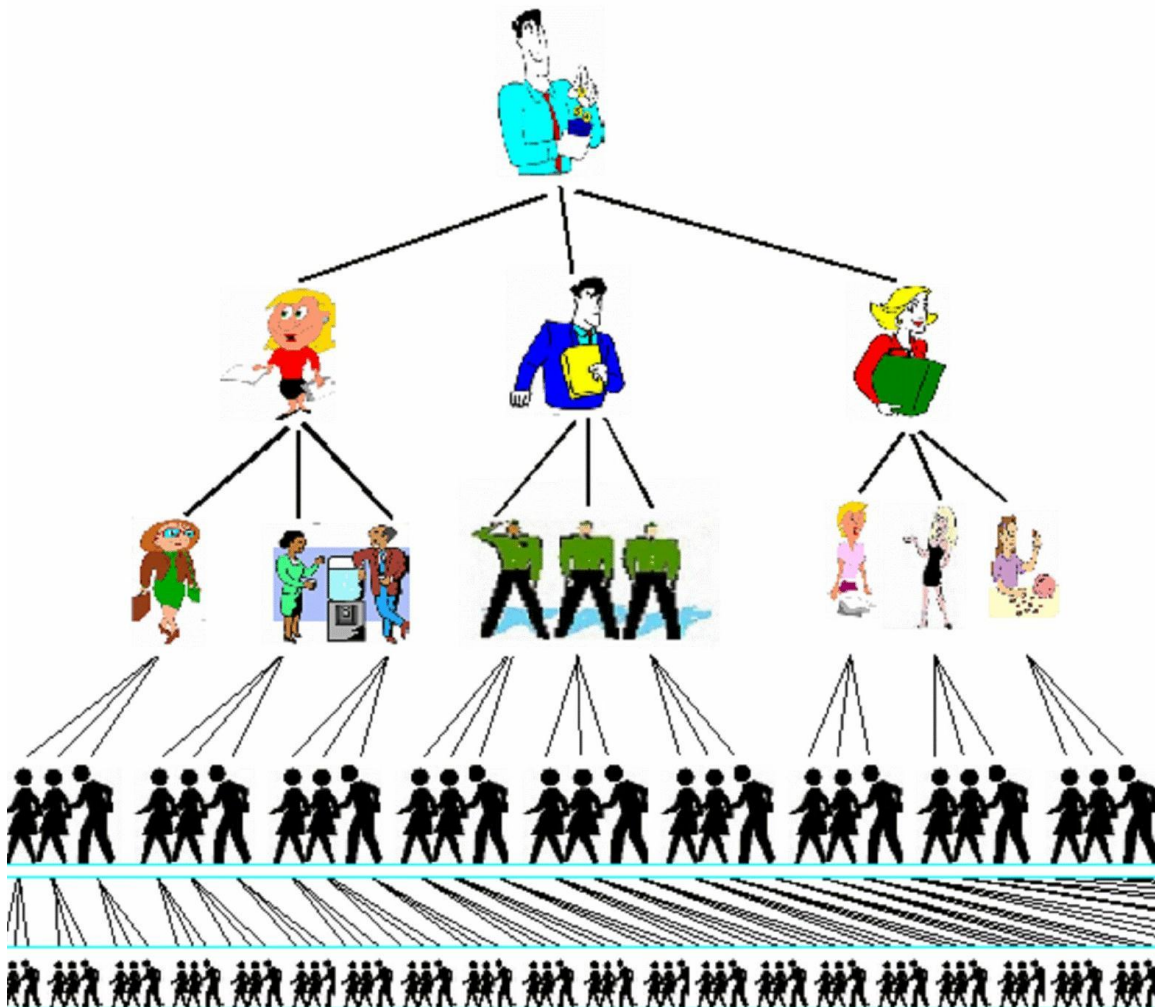

“What happens when I’m part of the Mentor Matrix?”

“That’s the most exciting part.

“First, you are placed in the Matrix under your Mentor. This might be the person who introduced you to the program if they are already a Mentor. Otherwise it will be a Mentor who is qualified. They will help you to build your team by assisting your Affiliates to become Mentors and by placing other qualified Mentors on your team.

“But how do I earn the six-figure income?”

“Simple! Your team in the Matrix grows as each Affiliate qualifies as a Mentor by helping other Affiliates. It looks like this –

“Each new generation of your team has three times as many people. Your complete Team Matrix has eight generations and a total potential of 9,840 Mentors. You earn a bonus of one dollar for each Mentor in the second through seventh generations and you earn a bonus of one-dollar-and-fifty-cents for each Mentor in the eighth generation of your Team.

How many Mentors are there in each of my generations?

“Your first has three.

“Your second has nine.

“Your third has 27.

“Your fourth has 81.

“Your fifth has 243.

“Your sixth has 729.

“Your seventh has 2187.

“And your eighth generation has 6561.

“You do the math and tell me how much you’ll earn when your Matrix is filled.”

“I’ll need a pencil and paper to figure that out.”

“Let me help. That’s 3 times $12.50 plus 9 plus 27 plus 81 plus 243 plus 729 plus 2187 times one dollar. That comes to $3,313.50. Then add 6561 times one-fifty. That’s $9,841.50 additional for a total of $13,155.

“Wow! I see where the six-figure income comes from – in theory!

“But will it actually work?”

“Yes!”

“Wait a minute. What if I get my three Mentors and they each do – but then the next generation quits?”

“A good question. You’re probably familiar with network marketing programs where some people start building an organization and then they get a lot of ‘do-nothing’ people and the whole thing collapses.”

“Yeh! I know some people who had that happen to them.”

“Our program is different. A member can cancel at any time and drop out if they aren’t interested in the benefits we offer.”

“Affiliates can enroll just two members to pay for their own membership.”

“Affiliates only become part of the Mentor Matrix after they have enrolled two or more Affiliates and also assisted them to do the same.”

“Because all Affiliates who become part of the Matrix have qualified in this way, there are no Matrix members who have not done their part in building the growing Matrix.”

“What if the Affiliate who introduced me doesn’t qualify? Can I still become part of the Matrix?”

“Yes you can. You will be assigned to a Mentor already in the Matrix. When the Affiliate who introduced you qualifies, they might be assigned to your team.”

“This encourages Affiliates to help the Affiliates they sponsor instead of just finding other members and Affiliates.”

“Wait a minute. It’s going to take forever to build a team of over 9,000 Mentors. I don’t see how this dollar bonus thing is going to produce a six-figure income any time soon!”

“Just how long it will take depends on you.”

“What do ‘ya mean?”

“How long does it take you to enroll and become an Affiliate?”

“It looks pretty simple. Just a few minutes, I guess.”

“But how long does it take you to decide to enroll and become an Affiliate?”

“I don’t know. I haven’t decided yet.”

“What will you have to do to decide?”

“I want to be sure I’m doing the right thing.”

“What will it take for you to be sure?”

“I have to feel right about what I’m doing.”

“Good. To feel ‘right’ about enrolling, the value you receive must be worth the price you pay. If our program helps you to feel just about perfect and to earn a six-figure income in two hours a week, would that be worth twenty-five dollars a month?”

“Sure.”

“And if it was worth twenty-five dollars a month to you, do you think it might be worth it to other people?”

“You bet!”

“After all, if you decide after a month that it’s not worth it, we’ll cancel your membership and refund your twenty-five dollars.

“Anything else you need to make your decision?”

“I’ve got to feel confident that this will work.”

“How long do you need to see it working to feel confident that it will work?”

“I’ve heard that a company should be in business for at least five years to see if they will survive.”

“Some companies survive for five months and some survive fifty years. But even some of the older companies come to an end. What’s important is benefiting from your participation – and for you to survive whether the company does or not.

“If you take part in a company, just be sure that your participation is rewarded for all the time you are a part of it.

“With our program, you are rewarded monthly, or weekly.

“Now how long do you need to make your decision?”

“I guess I could decide now. After all, it’s only twenty-five bucks.

“But some people will take a lot longer to decide.”

“You’re right again. But those people who decide quickly and take part in the Affiliate program will be rewarded much sooner.

“Suppose you and everyone else made their decision in just one day. How soon would you be earning your six-figure income?”

“I don’t know.”

“You’d start earning it your very first month!

“Now suppose everyone took one month to decide to participate. How long before you would start earning that six-figure income?”

“I guess that would be about eight months.”

“That’s right. But what will actually happen is that some people will decide in a day – some will decide in a week and some will take a month.

“Saddest of all are the people who will never decide. They’ll just watch other people decide and succeed and eventually believe that they waited too long and life just past them by again.”

“I know lots of people like that. They’re always saying how they should have bought Microsoft stock or real estate years ago.”

“The good news for us is that we will grow rapidly because even those people who have been thinking about enrolling for a while are joining every day.

“It reminds me of how pop corn pops. When it’s first heated there are no pops. Then there are a few. Then more and more until they’ve all popped—except for the duds that will never pop.

“The more people who learn about our program, the more that will join. Some of the people you tell about us will like what we’re doing and will join immediately. Others will join after they see how it is working for you. By then you will already have many other Mentors on your team. When they join, they will be assigned to a Mentor within your team so they’ll contribute to your six-figure income and also to several other Mentors.

“O.K. I’m convinced. What do I do next?”

“Go to www.justaboutperfect.org and click on [Enroll] and follow the prompts.

“When you enroll, check the box next to “Please sign me up as an Affiliate”. There is no cost to become an Affiliate. You only need to agree to our terms of service.

The Affiliate Scholarship Program.

We want everyone to be able to participate in the Affiliate Program. You don’t need to be a member to be an Affiliate. You won’t have access to all the benefits of the membership program and the first two paid members you enroll will pay for your own membership. They will also count toward your Matrix qualification.

You will be able to attend special teleclasses to assist you in enrolling members and becoming a Mentor. Send an email to peter@justaboutperfect.com requesting the scholarship.

“What should I do first as a new Affiliate?”

“I recommend that you take advantage of all the benefits of your ‘Just About Perfect’ membership. They are designed to work together to assist you in building your six-figure income and to build the life you dream about.”

“But I want to build that six-figure income fast.”

“And we’ll help you in many ways.

“Of course, you start by enrolling two or three members in ‘Just About Perfect’.

“That’s why you should become familiar with all the benefits of the membership. When you think of people you know who might be interested in some or all of the benefits, let them know about them. Make no attempt to ‘sell’ anyone. Nobody likes to be sold.

“I’m sure you’ve made purchases – movies, restaurants, bargains – that you’ve told your friends about. If they were interested they probably asked you more questions – and you left it up to them to follow up.

“If they show an interest, suggest that they go to our website to learn more. As an Affiliate, you can also email them a link to the website that will give you credit if they enroll.

“We do not permit ‘SPAM’ and if an Affiliate uses any form of spam, they are subject to losing their Affiliate privilege and any future Affiliate income.”

“What if I don’t know anyone who’s interested or if I just don’t want to promote to the people I do know?”

“It’s hard for me to believe that you don’t know anyone who wants a better life – or even a six-figure income. I do understand not wanting to ‘promote’ your friends.

“Telling someone about an opportunity is hardly promoting unless you try to sell them.

“While you are waiting for people you have contacted to decide for themselves if they want to enroll, you can utilize the many forms of social networks to meet people who will have an interest in ‘Just About Perfect’. By answering their questions and getting acquainted, they will enroll through you.

“When anyone joins, they are asked “Where did they hear about us”. They will list your name and your email address (if they know it).

“You might offer your email address and suggest that they contact you by email to connect privately. We don’t recommend that you give out your phone number until you know the person you are enrolling.”

“It seems like you offer lots more help than most marketing programs. Do you also sell leads?”

“No. And we don’t recommend buying leads from the many lead sources you will find on the Internet. Many are of questionable value and it’s a very impersonal way to connect with people.”

“You might consider some of the other Social Networking sources like Facebook, MySpace, YouTube, LinkedIn, Friendster or Ryze as a way to meet like-minded people. As you find areas of mutual interest, you’ll meet many people who will be interested in what we’re doing.”

“What do I do in my two-hour work week once I am part of the Matrix?”

“Your first responsibility is to assist the people you introduced that want to be Affiliates and Mentors. Encourage them to participate in the teleclasses or the Coaching Gym to get all the help they need.”

“If they are not already your friend, become their friend and do what friends do – support without exploiting or ‘bugging’ them.”

“If they don’t want to be Affiliates or Mentors, respect their wishes. We believe in contact by permission. Ask them if they want you to stay in touch by email, phone or in person. If they don’t, assure them that you will always be available when they want your support. Then find other people that are more interested in our Affiliate and Mentor programs.”

“What do I do when the people I introduced are already part of the Matrix?”

“Think of them as important members of your growing team. Perhaps they will have people that you can assist better than they can.”

“You can connect with many people within your team that need and want your assistance. As part of their mentoring team, offer help when it is requested but never impose when it’s not wanted. The objective of ‘Just About Perfect’ is to improve the lives of all our members. We’re about more than just the six-figure income.”

“Should I help with other aspects than just their income?”

“Think of everyone as your best friend. Treat everyone as you want to be treated. But remember, we all see life differently and we need to respect everyone’s point of view so long as they don’t initiate force or fraud against others or their property and are not disrespectful of other people.*”

“Being of service to other people is the highest gift we can give ourselves and to the world.”

“Wait a minute. Everyone who becomes an Affiliate can’t earn a six-figure income. There have to be some at the bottom who don’t earn anything.”

“That’s very true. Some people will become members and then find their opportunity in other ventures. Their greatest benefit will be what they learn from our teleclasses and coaching. This will prepare them to profit from another opportunity when it is presented to them.*”

“If everybody did the same service, the world wouldn’t work. What makes for a prosperous society is people performing a great variety of services that others want.*”

“As ‘Just About Perfect’ grows, we will offer many more services. When we earn through our services, we will support many other people who are providing valuable services to us. Abundance and prosperity grow as we all provide services for each other.”
